Joyce Carroll, Diversity Chair, made a request of members to keep diversity in the forefront. Remember that diversity does not only apply to the workforce but to groups such as CNHRMA. We need to continue to encourage participation from a diverse group of people.

Jill Smith, Foundation Chair, informed the group there would be a raffle at the annual conference to benefit the SHRM Foundation.

Membership is currently at 104 members with 68 members also belonging to SHRM.

Terri Hongsermeier, Professional Development Chair, reminded everyone of the Leadership Conference in Columbus – registration due February 28, 2008. Terri also reviewed upcoming meeting topics –March 27 will be FMLA changes.

There is an opportunity for participation on the Executive Committee. The Treasurer position is available. Interested individuals need to contact Regina Rathman immediately.

The CNHRMA website has had many new additions and changes. Please check it out.

The HR Games are April 11-12 in Omaha at UNO. There are many great opportunities to volunteer at this event. Volunteers can sign up at <http://sapphire.shrm.org/studentvolunteerconf>

Scott Moore from Baird Holm presented the Top 10 Cases of 2007.
Door Prize went to Denise Jensen.
